TRYING YOUR FIRST CASE:

EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK

Wednesdays, February 18th & 25th, 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

SEMINAR OVERVIEW: Every trial lawyer has had a first trial. Some had the benefit of "second seating" a more experienced lawyer and getting a front row seat to orient them to the process of trying a case. Others have had to rely on law school mock trials and text books and their own instincts to get them through it – hopefully with more trial than error. In Trying Your First Case you will be guided through the anatomy of a jury trial from the basics of preparation to the intricacies of summations and post-trial motions. This will be an in-depth orientation to all of the facets of trial and trial preparation with some veterans of the trial bar. Because even they had a first trial once.
